Cultivating the Basket-Willow.

Germantown Telegraph.

Many years ago a large amount of willows were raised within from ten to twenty miles of Philadelphia, for basket-making purposes, and a considerable amount is yet raised, but nothing near what was grown in years gone by. We do not know why there has been this falling-off, for the basket-makers tell us that at the prices they pay osier growing must be profitable. We have not to hand any statistics as to the actual profits to be made on an acre of willows; or indeed of the product, but from lows; or, indeed, of the product, but from the fact that the willow when grown in this way does not much interfere with the growth of grass about it; that from one to two tons of meadow grass to the acre can be had from a lot of willow-land, would seem to indicate that something good ought to be made out of it. The willows cost very little in the way of expense They have to be cared for to be sure when young, or grass and weeds, if they do not actually smother them out, will interfere very much with their growth. Then this care has to be kept up for three or four years, as it is this long before a willow plant will be strong enough to cut back, so as to throw out many strong shoots. But these strong stocks once brought up there is no more labor, as the buyer of the willows, at least about Philadelphia, will cut and carry away themselves, doing their own peeling and whatever is necessary to bring the shoots into a proper condition

The kinds most generally employed about Philadelphia are the white, gray and pur-ple willow; the last being a delicate kind for fine work. The last kind, the purple willow, is not perhaps so well adapted for growing in grass as a meadow, and it is too delicate to grow very high, and it is best to give it all the ground to itself. In fact, wherever we have seen this kind grown in this vicinity, it so occupied all

As we have said, we have no facts or figures of any account to hand; but it seems on a first view that much more might be made of it than has been done. The invention of a process for softening wood, so as to fit it for basket making, and yet not affect its enduring quality, may possibly to some extent interfere with the profits of the willow, but as to driving it out of cultivation, the willow is too easily raised, and will grow in land more worthless than any of the oaks, and along streams and swampy places, where nothing else of any use would grow, and so rapidly, too, as in some cases to admit of two cuttings a year. In fact, whatever may be done in the way of softening or steaming of oak, hickory, ash and other hard woods for the purpose of basket making, etc., it has thus far made but little progress, and assuredly not enough to drive, at any time in the future, the willow out of cultiva-

Arousing its Readers. Arousing its Readers.

An alarm of fire at midnight is a startling thing, but not half so startling to many who hear it as would be the sudden knowledge of their own dangerous physical condition. Thousands of thousands are hurrying to their graves because they are carelessly indifferent to the insidious inroads of disease and the means of cure. It is the mission of H. H. Warner & Co., with their Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, to arouse men to a sense of their danger and then cure them.—Memphis Appeal.

Is exceedingly happy to announce to his numerous friends that his wife and self have safely returned from nearly a seven weeks' tour through a portion of ninestates, riding and satling nearly 3,000 miles. Dr. Greene is now ready to help all sick persons to regain their health. His attendant says in one week of his absence 107 patients called to see him at his offices. The following appeared in the Columbia Courant of June 17, 1880: FROM THE BRINK OF THE GRAVE. As nearly everybody in Columbia knows Harry Long has not for two years past been expected to live from one week to the other, nearly all of which time he has been in bed or propped up in an arm chair. During this time he has taken medicine enough to kill a dozen people—pounds of pills and powders and barrels of liquids, Mr. Wm. Paxson, and others who had been looking after the wants of Mr. Long, pre-liquids, Mr. Wm. Paxson, and others who had been looking after the wants of Mr. Long, prevailed upon him to try Dr. C. A. Greene, of Lancaster, and I am pleased to say the effect of Dr. Greene's treatment is magical. The sick man is now almost like one raised from the grave. He is now out visiting friends, and a few days ago was in Lancaster city to offer congratulations to Dr. Greene in person. Well! well!! Wonders never cease.

MISCELLANEOUS. DAILY EXCURSIONS Brandy as a Medicine. The following article was voluntarily sent to

Mr. II. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physi-cian of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those af-Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE. This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims.

With a purely philanthropic motive we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable disease Dysnepsia, a specific reneely, which is case Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than

Brandy. The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly, A Sovereign Remedy or all their ills and aches. He it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is

REIGART'S OLD BRANDY, Sold by our enterprising young friend, H E SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never falled, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies, no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifies would sufflee to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases. In proof of the curative powers of Reigart's Old Brandy, In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon num bers of witnesses—one case in particular we A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach-would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour cructations constantly—uo appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his dict to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Mcthodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try Reigart's Old Brandy, In his case, he looked up with astonishment, but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. Ho used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach careable of digesting anything which a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to cat. He still keeps it and uses a lit-tle occasionally; and since he has this medi-cine he has been of very little pecuniary bene-fit to the doctor.—A Practising Physician. H. E. SLAYMAKER,
